VIENNA

One of the very best cities in Europe, Vienna vies with Paris, London and Budapest in the "must see" stakes". No matter what time of year you visit, Vienna has a host of things to offer; from the stunning palaces of Bellevue and Schönbrunn to the Spanish Riding School at the Hofburg, from sampling delicious "Sachertorte" at the Hotel Sacher to visiting the opera or theatre, from fascinating museums such as the Schatzkammer to glorious shopping at the Christmas Markets.

BUDAPEST

After years of east-bloc communist rule, the shabby and shady city of Budapest has risen once again, like a phoenix from the ashes. Stunning baroque architecture meets modern, glistening 21st century. Good food, a hearty welcome and superb value all combine to make this one of Europe's great cities. Ancient civilisations realised the potential of the healing waters that seep up to the surface, today creating some of the nicest spas in Europe. Visit the Szechenyi or the Gellert Baths for a touch of luxury at a fraction of what you might expect to pay. Stroll through the streets, lined with cafes, restaurants, shops and bars. Visit the famous market and enjoy stuffed goose or turkey with a cold beer or a hot wine.
